“The authoritative voice on Long Island
for commercial real estate.”

CIBS, an association of regional commercial and industrial real estate brokers and related businesses who promote professionalism, ethics, and industry cohesion. CIBS is known for giving back to the community and raises tens of thousands of dollars every year for non-profit causes and organizations. So it was a “hole in one” when CIBS chose to honor Arthur Katz as Man-of-the Year at their 15th Annual Golf Outing at the North Shore Country Club in Roslyn on May 31st, 2011. Arthur Katz has spent the last 35 years involved in numerous causes and supporting non-profit organizations all while building his New York Metro Area’s premier pest control company Knockout Pest Control – and this golf outing was in support of two wonderful causes: Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Long Island and the John J. Byrne Community Center in Uniondale.

Arthur’s company services residential, commercial, and industrial properties. His company Knockout Pest Control is a leading force in using proven Green technologies in battling disease transmitting and destructive pests. Knockout Pest Control’s mission is much more than an exterminating company but positions itself as a company focused on public health and safety. Knockout Pest Control is also spearheading new highly effective Green technologies in the fight against the Bed Bug scourge that has hit Long Island, NYC, Westchester, & Rockland Counties in New York. Knockout Pest Control is also pioneering the use of the innovative Termite Control System, SENTRICON, that does not use dangerous pesticide chemicals.

Arthur Katz has always shown a caring and compassion for his neighbors and his community, as well as extending his philanthropic abilities to other places outside the United States when the need calls. Arthur Katz is certainly deserving of the honor of Man-of-the-Year.
